

STRIKE A POSE

Evolution of Photography & the Photo Sharing Boom

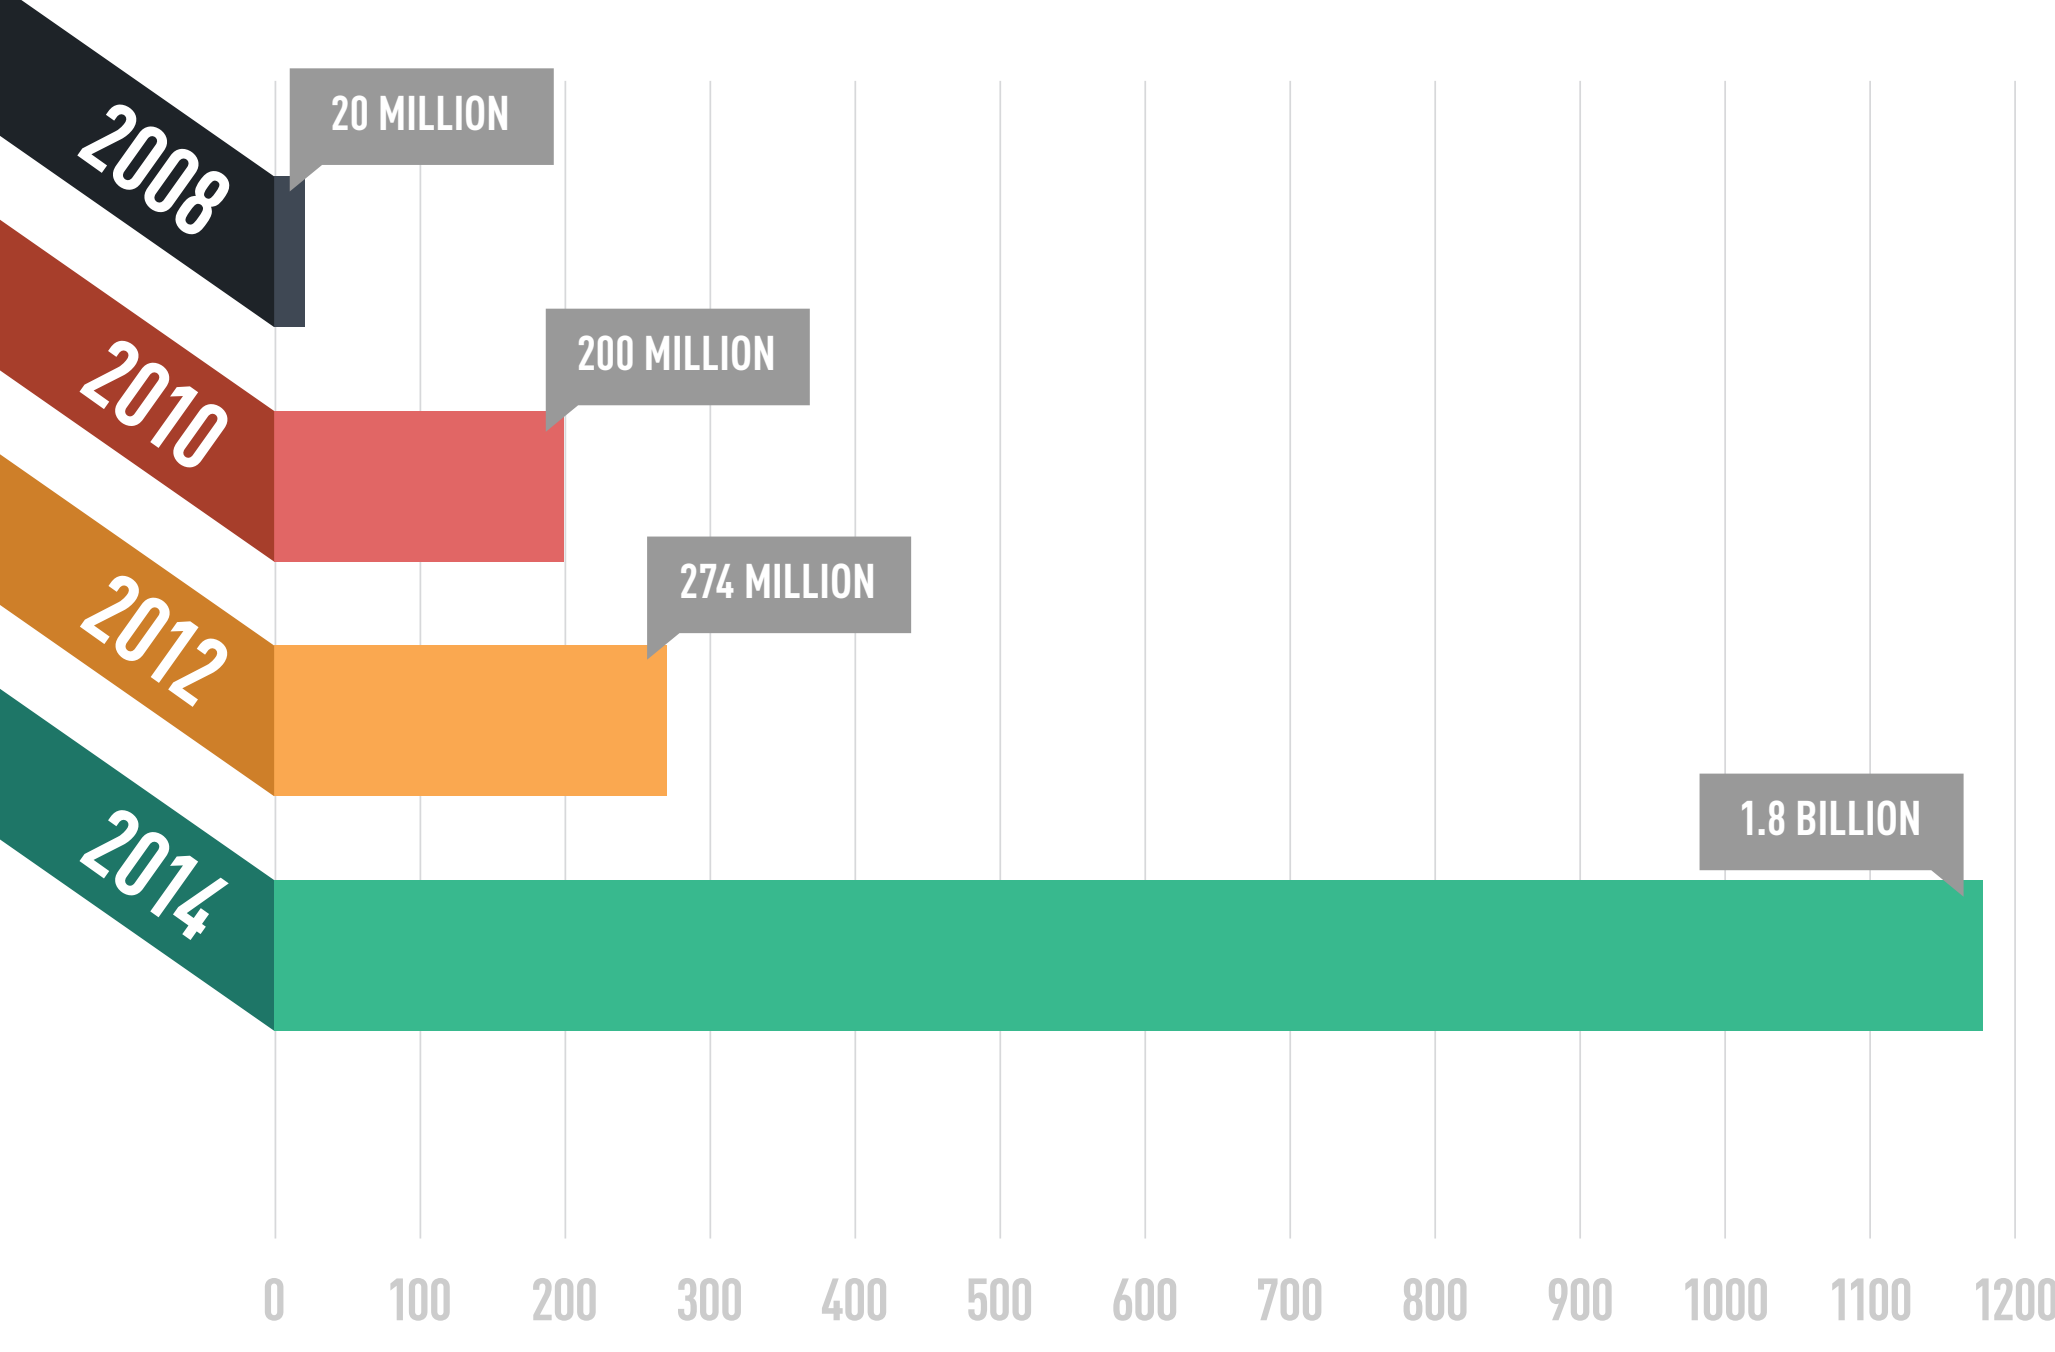

If you think back 10 years, we were still recording and sharing our lives in a very narrow capacity. Most of our stories were shared within our close networks, either in person, over the phone or by email. In the span of a decade, the way we share information has drastically changed. People are now engaging on a global level, sharing moments instantaneously and documenting their lives for all to see.

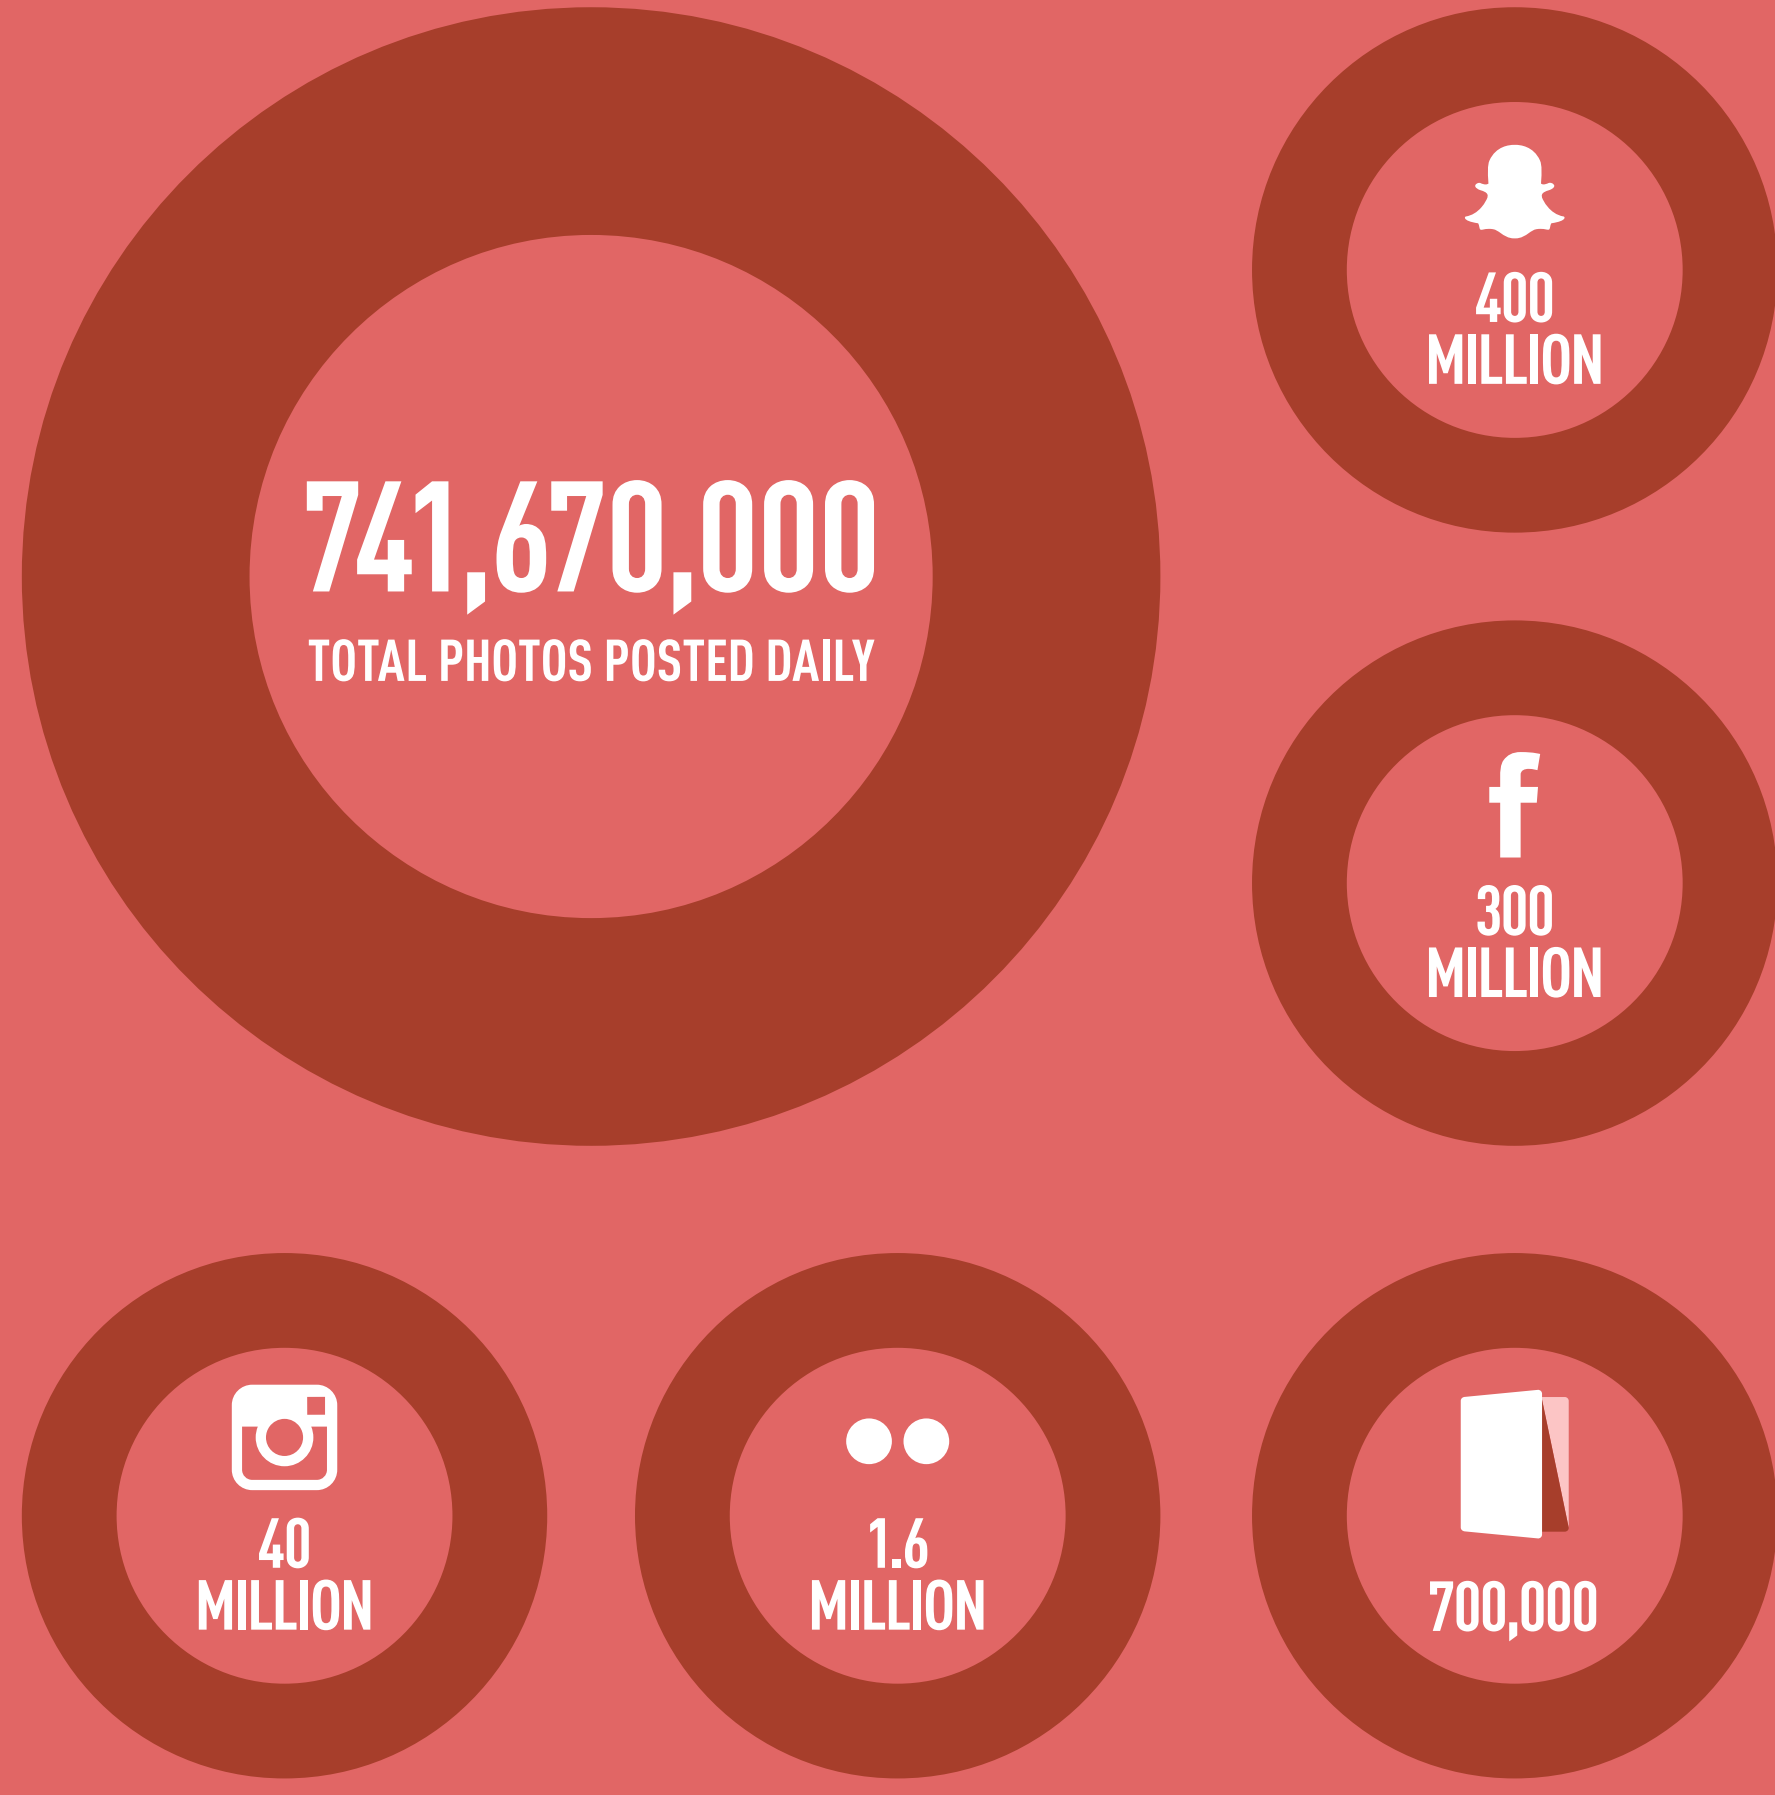

TODAY WE TAKE...
